

BIOGRAPHY

Susan Valles is divinely ordained water in this present wilderness and a stream of refreshment in the desert of any seeking heart. A powerful prophetic voice and songwriter, she is a competent instrument through which the Spirit of the Living God flows, ministers and heals hearts and lives.

As a skillful worship leader, Susan is specifically gifted to cut through the clutter of long-held beliefs and cultural traditions within worship and cause worshipers and seekers alike to understand better and experience the heart of God.

Susan Valles knows how to lift the veil and clear the fog that inhibits our entrance into the presence of the Father. Her transformational ministry as a songwriter, prophetic worship leader, and author draws each worshiper deeper into a right now and forever life with God. A life verse that continually inspires her as a songwriter and worshiper is found in John 10:10 "I came that they may have and enjoy life, and have it in abundance [to the full, till it overflows]." Her central message is calling the heirs of Jesus to a "richer, deeper experience and life as we sincerely seek the face of God."

Susan is married to Antonio and the mother of four children, Jadon, Takoda, Canaan, and Selah. They currently live in the beautiful state of North Carolina.
